The background of the advertisement is a top-down view of a white desk. In the top left corner, a portion of a laptop keyboard and a pair of black-rimmed glasses are visible. In the top center, a small zebra-striped decorative object sits on a white, fluffy surface. In the top right corner, a small white plate with black polka dots and some green and blue beads is partially shown. Two black pens with gray accents are the central focus, positioned diagonally from the bottom left towards the top right. The pen in the foreground is uncapped, showing a silver-colored tip and a gray rubberized grip section. The pen behind it is capped. The text 'Executive Track' is written in a black cursive font, underlined with a thin orange line. Below it, 'GRIP PEN' is written in a large, bold, black sans-serif font, also underlined with a thin orange line. To the right of the pens, there are three bullet points, each starting with an orange triangle. At the bottom center, there are two more lines of text, each preceded by an orange triangle. At the bottom right, there is a small black silhouette of a tiger with the words 'MADE IN INDIA' written inside it, and another line of text preceded by an orange triangle.
